Editor's Statement in "Deccan Herald."

*Sri Mulka GOVINDA REDDY (Chitaldrug).—would like to bring to the notice of the Chair that on 10th March the Home Minister took objection to what appeared in the 'Deccan Herald'. Two days after, you were pleased to read a statement from the Editor of the 'Deccan Herald' expressing his regret for what had appeared in the columns of the 'Deccan Herald'. To-day we see in the 'Deccan Herald' a fuller statement. The other day you were pleased to read some extracts. I would like to know why the full statement written by the Editor of the 'Deccan Herald' was not made known to the members of this Legislature and how it was permitted to be published to-day in full. As the Editor himself has put it . . . ,

Mr. SPEAKER.—I will make a statement to-morrow.

Sri Mulka GOVINDA REDDY.—As the Editor himself has put it, we feel that we get a different version from the version we got when we heard the extract from you.

Sri A. V. NARASIMHA REDDY (Bangalore-South).—I have tabled a similar motion on the same subject. What Sri Mulka Govinda Reddy said about that matter appeals to be true to some extent and I also hold the same view. Now the Chair is saying that a statement would be made tomorrow, I welcome that statement.
